

O’Gorman announces the 2007 Alumni and Founders Award Recipients

Alumni Award Winner for 2007

MR. TOM EVANS

Tom Evans graduated from O’Gorman High School in 1960. He was very involved in school life: basketball, track and field and volleyball. Also, Tom excelled in academics.

Currently, Tom is the Chief Executive Officer of Education and Training Services International. He has established a 35 year record of academic and administrative leadership in the Ontario education and training system. During his career he held teaching positions in the elementary, secondary, community college, university and private sector areas.

Since 1990 Tom has been directly involved in various management and partnership development post secondary training projects in the Baltic States (Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania), the British Isles, Barbados, Costa Rica, Egypt, Hungary, Jordan, India, Brazil, Argentina, Chile, Romania, Ukraine and Bangladesh. Invited as a guest speaker at several international conferences, his presentation on “Perspectives on Training for the 21st Century”, “Training for the Disadvantaged in the 21st Century” and “Designing the Future through Educational Leadership” were published and distributed internationally. “Defining the Future of Work through Economic Development” was published nationally.
