NCDSB Purchases Property As It Looks to the Future

Timmins, Ontario, November 25, 2010:

During Wednesday, November 24, 2010's Northeastern Catholic District School Board Trustee meeting, the Board of Trustees formally approved the purchase of Queen Elizabeth Public School from District School Board Ontario North East.

The property was acquired in anticipation of future needs and provides the Northeastern Catholic District School Board with many options as the new Board of Trustees looks to the future of Catholic Education in Timmins and throughout Northeastern Ontario.

Rick Brassard, Board of Trustee Chair commented "We are pleased with this acquisition. The Board of Trustees always researches and looks for options that will enhance the Catholic education we provide our students."

NCDSB serves the communities and surrounding areas of Cobalt, New Liskeard, Englehart, Kirkland Lake, Timmins, Iroquois Falls, Cochrane, Kapuskasing and Moosonee with 14 Catholic schools providing excellence in Catholic education from junior kindergarten to high school.
