NCDSB Celebrates World Catholic Education Day

Northeastern Ontario, May 13, 2010: The Northeastern Catholic District School Board and all of their schools took part in a prayer service today at 9:30 am across Northeastern Ontario, from Bishop Belleau School in Moosonee, to St. Patrick Catholic School in Cobalt and all points in between, to celebrate World Catholic Education Day.

"It is important to take time out of our busy day and remember what is important and what makes us a Catholic school board. World Catholic Education Day is one of those days to celebrate the importance of Catholic education in today's world and also to share time together as a Catholic family." commented Tricia Stefanic Weltz, Superintendent of Education.

The theme for this year's World Catholic Education Day is "ask and your joy will be complete."
