O'Gorman Intermediate Catholic School Donates Food for those in Need!

Timmins, October 24, 2011:

O'Gorman Intermediate Catholic School, over a two week period in October, collected 1559 non-perishable food items for the Timmins Food Bank and they also donated a cheque of $80.00 to help those less fortunate and in need.

Ted Wertz, OICS Principal stated, "The Catholic virtue of the month for October is Gratitude, and what better way to demonstrate this virtue to our students by asking them to donate and collect non-perishable food for those people within our community who do not have enough to eat. We have to be grateful for what we have and at OICS we always strive to help our neighbours in need!"

OICS Students assist with loading donated food items to the Timmins Food Bank
