NEWS RELEASE

New Principal Named to Bishop Belleau School in Moosonee

Timmins, August 23, 2010: The Northeastern Catholic District School Board would like to welcome Linda Pilgrim to the position of Principal for Bishop Belleau School, located in Moosonee, Ontario.

Tricia Stefanic Weltz, Superintendent of Education commented, "It is with great pleasure and excitement that we welcome Linda Pilgrim to the position of principal at Bishop Belleau School. Linda brings knowledge and passion for Catholic education to the Bishop Belleau and Moosonee community. She previously served as a teacher and principal for the NCDSB, and knows the workings of our district school board very well."

Linda Pilgrim is a dedicated professional who extends herself to ensure that staff, students and their families feel welcomed to the school community. Linda believes that each child has the capacity to succeed and will advocate for children under her care. Linda will foster a true team spirit and will promote an environment of professional collaboration and active parental and community engagement to ensure that the distinct needs of our students are met.

Glenn Sheculski, Director of Education added, "We look forward to welcoming Linda to Bishop Belleau School and the community of Moosonee. I know she is anxious to continue working with all of our partners in Moosonee and the staff of Bishop Belleau School to provide a positive learning and teaching experience for all."

Linda Pilgrim, Principal of Bishop Belleau School noted, "My philosophy is that we belong to all our children, and they belong to us. We are more than a team, we are family."
