Northeastern Catholic District School Board of Trustees Inaugural Board Meeting Takes Place

Timmins, December 12, 2012:

On Friday, December 9, 2012 the Northeastern Catholic District School Board of Trustees conducted their annual Trustee elections for the positions of Chair and Vice-Chair.

The Inaugural Board of Trustees meeting began with a short performance by the O'Gorman Glee Club, highlighting the beautiful voices and talent of a variety of O'Gorman High School students from grade 10 through to grade 12.

Following this a prayer service took place to officially open the meeting and commemorated the Season of Advent that Catholics around the world are currently celebrating.

Rick Brassard, current Chair of the Board and Fred Salvador, current Vice –Chair of the Board of Trustees were acclaimed to their respective positions for the upcoming 2011-2012 year.

Rick Brassard, Board Chair commented, "I want to thank you for the confidence you have placed in me and I am looking forward to working with everyone in the upcoming year to promote Catholic Education throughout Northeastern Ontario. We will have many challenges, but I know we will be able to solve them as we work together for our students and the many Catholic School stakeholders that support us."
