NEWS RELEASE

Catholic School Board Trustees acclaimed throughout District - Election in Timmins

Northeastern Ontario, September 20, 2010:

Five Northeastern Catholic District School Board Trustees have been acclaimed to office for the next 4 years throughout Northeastern Ontario. Starting in Kirkland Lake, Rick Brassard, current Board Chair and Steve Malciw have been acclaimed to the English Catholic School Board. In Temiskaming Shores, Martin Drainville, current Board Vice-Chair has been acclaimed. In Iroquois Falls, Elizabeth King has been acclaimed and in Kapuskasing, Denis Lincez has been acclaimed to office.

In Timmins, there will be an election for the positions of English Catholic School Board trustee. Five individuals have declared their candidacy for four positions. Running in this year's English Catholic School Board election are incumbents Peter DelGuidice, Colleen Landers and Fred Salvador Jr. The other two candidates who have put their names forward are Ron MacInnis and Bill Vane. The election will take place on Monday, October 25, 2010.

"I would like to congratulate those trustees who were acclaimed in their respective communities and wish those candidates in Timmins good luck as they hit the campaign trail. I look forward to working with our new Board of Trustees over the next four years. I would encourage all of our Catholic School supporters in Timmins to vote on October 25th."

The next Northeastern Catholic District School Board term of office begins December 1, 2010 and runs for four years.
