NEWS RELEASE

O'Gorman High School's New After School Homework Help Program Timmins, November 8, 2010:

O'Gorman High School is pleased to announce an After School Homework Help Program. Starting on October 27, 2010, the Northeastern Catholic District School Board has hired a qualified high school teacher to work with students from 3:15 to 5:15 pm in the school library.

Darren Berthier, OHS Principal commented "This unique opportunity provides the student the extra help on their everyday assignments which will alleviate their frustrations when they are at home. Also, this program provides the opportunity to rescue students' credits who are considered 'at risk' of not succeeding in a particular course. What better way for students to consolidate their learning?"

Mr. Adam Wojtus, Teacher at OHS, assists a student during the After School Homework Help Program.

James Michaud, Superintendent of Student Success noted "It is these innovative and unique programs that set O'Gorman High School apart from the rest. We are always focusing on our students and how to assist them achieve and develop their skills. This After School Homework Help program is designed to assist students from all grades and provide that little extra that some students require to achieve success."
