O'Gorman High School's Yearbook Club Places 3rd for Yearbook Cover Timmins, April 19, 2013:

O'Gorman High School's Yearbook Club recently entered their upcoming 2012-2013 Yearbook Cover into the Northeastern Ontario Yearbook Cover Contest sponsored by Friesens Canada and is thrilled to announce that it placed 3rd in the competition. Now the cover will move on to the Friesens Canada National Yearbook Cover Contest.

The creation of a Yearbook takes many hours. It's an entire year long process that requires a huge commitment of dedicated individuals. This year's club has been putting in countless hours. Yearbook Advisor Mr. Greg Bock, one of the technology teachers at O'Gorman

High School adds, "I am always proud of everyone's efforts throughout the year to produce this book of memories. This year's book is especially exciting. We have taken a different approach than the previous couple of books. It's an exciting time as the book comes to life and we cannot wait until its arrival in October. As for the Cover, it will be revealed shortly. Please stay tuned!"
