NCDSB Announces Principal Transfers

Timmins, May 19, 2011:

The Northeastern Catholic District School Board of Trustees approved the placements of three Principals throughout their 14 schools at Wednesday, May 18th, 2011 Board of Trustee meeting.

Daphne Brumwell will be moving to St. Paul School in Timmins, while John D'Alessandri will be moving to St. Joseph School in South Porcupine. The Board also announced that Betty Pichette will be returning to St. Anne English Catholic School in Iroquois Falls after a one year leave.

Rick Brassard, Board Chair, stated "It is the desire of the Board to provide school principals with a greater depth of knowledge, broader experience and new challenges in leadership for the betterment of the school community. As well, students will benefit from the individual principals' different kinds of leadership and areas of discipline."

It is the policy of the Northeastern Catholic District School Board that a review of the placement of school principals be conducted on a yearly basis. Factors taken into consideration during this review are the needs of the individual school, the needs of the children in the school and the general needs of the system.
