St. Anne Catholic School Student's Celebrate their Grade 8 Graduation

Iroquois Falls, ON, June 23, 2010: Grade 8 students from St. Anne Catholic School celebrated their Graduation at St. Anne Parish on June 22, 2010.

The graduation ceremonies included a Mass at St. Anne's Church, followed by a graduation dinner, and then graduation certificates and awards were presented to the Grade 8 students.

Elizabeth King, Northeastern Catholic District School Board Trustee commented "This is a very special time in your life. You have completed one phase of your education, one that has been rooted in Catholic values, and now you will be moving on to your next phase – high school. It is our hope and prayers that you will take all that you have learned and apply it to all of life lessons in your future."
