St. Joseph School Parent Council Sponsors Unique Reading Program for All Students

South Porcupine, January 20th, 2012:

St Joseph Catholic School Parent Council is currently in the process of developing a program to ensure that every St. Joseph School student has a new book to take home at his/her reading level every month for the remainder of the school year.

To this end the Catholic School Parent Council is running a silent auction on Wednesday January 25, 2012 to kick off this initiative, beginning at 5:30 pm. "With your assistance we can ensure that every child has the opportunity to experience the joy of reading and to have all of the advantages that strong reading skills provide in our world." noted Christine Watt, Chair of the St. Joseph Catholic School Parent Council.

John D'Alessandri, St. Joseph School Principal commented, "On behalf of all of our students, I want to take this opportunity to invite parents, grandparents, all family members, friends and everyone that cares about literacy and the benefits of reading to join us for our first ever silent auction that will allow us to purchase books for all of our students. Mark your calendars today and join us on Wednesday, January 25th for great deals, fun and food!"

For further information or inquiries please feel free to contact St Joseph School at 705-235-4622. Your support is truly appreciated!
