Northeastern Catholic School Board Wears Pink to Stop School Bullying

Timmins, April 14, 2010: The Northeastern Catholic District School Board is wearing Pink shirts today to support the 3rd Annual "Pink Shirt Day" on April 14th. This is the third annual pink shirt day where people across our nation and worldwide, wear pink as a statement for anti-bullying.

Tricia Stefanic Welts, Superintendent of Education commented, "Many schools across our system will also be participating in Pink Shirt Day, all in an effort to stop bullying within our schools."

Mason Marin, Junior Kindergarten French Immersion, St. Patrick's School in Kapuskasing participates in Pink Shirt Day to stop bullying in schools.
