Holy Family School Student Places First

Englehart, March 15, 2010: Sayge Robichaud, a Grade 3 student at Holy Family School, is proudly displaying her 1st place trophy for public speaking. Sayge competed at the Legion's Branch Public Speaking competition on Sunday, February 28th, placing first in the Primary Division. Her first place finish, qualified her to compete at the Zone competition on Sunday, March 7th, where once again she placed first in her division.

Principal Matthew Turner commented "All of us at Holy Family School are so proud of Sayge's recent win for public speaking. We want to wish her well at the next level of competition and know that she will do her best. Congratulations!"

Sayge will now go on to compete at the District level of competition on Monday, March 22nd in Kapuskasing.
