Knights of Columbus – Essay Contest

Each year, the Knights of Columbus offers students the opportunity to participate in their essay contest. This year, the students had a chance to write a two to three page essay on, "The importance of religious freedom." Fifty O'Gorman students took the challenge and submitted an essay. Each participant received a certificate from the Knights of Columbus. After our school's Advent mass, Mr. Morris, a member of the Knights of Columbus, was on hand to present the certificates and to announce the winner. Jerra Coulombe, the winner of the 2014 Knights of Columbus Essay Contest was presented a cheque of $100.00 and plaque that will be mounted in the school. Congratulations Jerra!
