Dear Sacred Heart Catholic School Families,

As the middle of the first semester approaches, our teachers are looking forward to meeting with each of you at our upcoming student-parent conferences on Thursday, November 10th from 4:30 p.m.-7:30 p.m. These conferences provide teachers with an opportunity to celebrate your child's successes and discuss next steps. More importantly, you will be able to provide helpful information about how you feel your child is doing.

During the conference, teachers will be sharing a portfolio of work that your child has completed thus far in the semester. In many cases, your child will have been involved in selecting the samples for the portfolio, choosing things that he or she is proud of, and things from which he or she has learned a great deal. For this reason, we ask that you bring your child along to the conference so that he or she can share the portfolio with you. What a great way to make students accountable for their learning! Also, teachers will discuss the observations that they have made about your child's growth both academically and socially. Your input is valuable, and attending this conference is an important aspect of your child's success this year and beyond.

Thank you again for your continued support of Sacred Heart Catholic School!

Yours sincerely,

Karen MacGregor,
Principal.
