

St. Patrick School Passion Of Poetry Students take 6 prizes including 1st and 2nd place!!!

St. Patrick School students excelled in the recent poetry contest put on by the Spring Pulse Poetry Festival. Each year the Festival hosts a contest for local school children during their week-long schedule of events. On Friday, May 13th, St. Patrick School students swept the contest receiving six prizes. Cole Tysick took first place for his poem “ABC Alliteration” followed by Bella Toney who came in second with her piece entitled “Weeping Willows”. Four more students, Terri Neddo, Casandra Hearn, Lola Angus and Sarah Eckert all followed with honourable mentions for their respective poems.

After having received an Honourable Mention for her poem “The Ghost Dog”, Casandra Hearn (Below) was asked to recite it at a special tribute ceremony on Saturday, May 14th, at the Poetry Park in Cobalt where the ashes of this dog had been lain to rest.

Casandra Reciting “The Ghost Dog”

Kate Marshall Flaherty and Casandra by the Ghost Dog monument

