St. Patrick School in Cobalt Makes Donation to Help Victims of Earthquake in Haiti

Cobalt, January 14, 2010: The St. Patrick School Youth Group presents a cheque for $500 to Fr. John Lemire as a donation to be sent to Development and Peace to assist the victims of the earthquake in Haiti. Four hundred dollars was raised through fundraising efforts of the St. Patrick Youth Group and $100 was added from St. Patrick School Staff. Chris Collins, Principal of St. Patrick Catholic School stated, "The St. Patrick School Youth Group believes in serving others whether in the community or around the world. They willingly embraced the idea to send financial help to the victims of the earthquake in Haiti from their own fundraising money."

Also in the picture is Deacon Larry Duke and Youth Group Coordinator and St. Patrick School teacher, Cheryl Ricco (far right) beside Fr. John Lemire.
