

NEWS RELEASE

Sacred Heart School Student's Poem wins First Place

Sacred Heart Catholic School, Kirkland Lake, March 10, 2010: Sacred Heart Catholic School student Sabrina Skalecki recently won first place in the District Legion Poetry contest for Remembrance Day. Her poem has gone on to the next level of competition which is provincial. Mrs. Kmet, Sabrina's teacher noted "This is the first time in my six years of teaching that I have had a student's entry win at the District Level and advance to the provincial competition."

Sabrina Skalecki proudly stated, "My poem was an acrostic about Flanders Fields, what happened during the war and how people felt. It's been the first time that my poem has won in the Remembrance Day Contest."

Sabrina Skalecki, Grade 6, pictured with her teacher Mrs. Kmet

For more information, please contact:

Andrew Marks, Community Relations Officer
(705) 268-7443 ext. 3213